Catalyst Formal and Movie Night

Never wanting to rest of the laurels of tradition (for the sake of "doing it because we've always done it"), Catalyst teens came up with the idea of having a "formal" in place of our annual movie marathon. So this year, Catalyst is doing something different.

On Saturday, March 19, from 5:00-10:00PM, Catalyst is going to get dressed up, go to Biaggi's for supper, and then back to church to watch We Are Marshall (one of the three movies we were going to watch on the movie marathon).

As the teens have been driving this, they are asking that teens dress "nicely."

I am asking that this NOT be an activity where families spend a lot of money on acquiring new duds for the evening. Rather, I'd love this to be an activity where kids wear nice clothing that they already have (this is not a competition).

We will meet at church at 4:30PM and will drive to Biaggi's. Upon completion of the meal, we will return to church and watch the movie. The evening will be complete at 10:00PM.

A nice meal will cost around $15 (remember they will also need money for a tip). The movie will be $2.

$2 is due March 16th.

Catalyst To Dare 2 Share Conference

April 1-3, Catalyst will be heading to Chicago's Sears Center Arena (in Hoffman Estates) for our return trip to the Dare 2 Share Conference. Last year was a "high school only" trip. However, I was so impressed, that this year we are making it open to all Catalyst teens.

This weekend conference will equip teens to confidently share Christ.

The cost of the weekend is $150. This will cover the cost of the conference, hotels, meals, and parking.

As the conference ends late Saturday night, we will be staying overnight at the hotel and waking up and attending church at Moody Church in Chicago on Sunday morning. After church we will head to Portillos Restaurant, will hang out down by Millennium Park for a while, and then head home.

Last year's trip was fantastic. I am encouraging all Catalyst teens to participate in this life-equipping event. I do not want one teen to miss out on this opportunity.

Partial and full scholarships are available upon request.
